

Samuel Lyu
Marine Surveyor

Class One Master Mariner Certificate of Competency

Marine surveyor, having extensive experience of marine navigation, sailed in all ranks from cadet to trainee Master on container vessel, sailed in mega container vessel as Chief Officer. During his time at sea, he gained in-depth knowledge of shipboard operations, ISM management policy, container and OOG cargo lashing, dangerous goods segregation and management, ship repair and maintenance.

CAREER

2019 - present	T&amp;A Marine Consultants and Surveyors Co., Ltd. Marine surveyor.
2017 - 2019	Oriental Oversea Container Line Trainee Captain.
2014 - 2017	Oriental Oversea Container Line Chief Officer.
2011 - 2013	Oriental Oversea Container Line Second Officer.
2007 - 2010	Oriental Oversea Container Line Deck Cadet to Third Officer.

EXPERIENCE

Whilst at sea was engaged in maintenance and operations of container vessels, serviced on various sizes of container vessel; worked with multi-national crews.

Responsible for onboard management team for operation and all deck maintenance, emergency and safety training, as well as supervision and training of junior personnel, loss control, budgetary control and ship energy efficiency management.

Familiar with OOG cargo lashing inspection as well as DG goods segregation as per vessel's ISM procedures and IMDG code. Experienced in preparing vessels for inspections and liaising with Authorities, including Classification Society, Flag and Port State. Since joining T&A Marine, has been trained for Hull & Machinery damage survey and investigation, preparation for expert reports related to OOG shipment, container ship salvage operation and contamination of chemical cargo.